RE: Daniel B. Karron, v United States of America 11-civ-1874 (RPP) and 07-cr - 541 (RPP)
Request for Additional 10 days to submit
Pre-trial conference transcript request

Dear Judge Patterson

We are continuing our writing and editing effort to resubmit a replacement for the stub 2255 Memorandum of Fact and Law, submitted but which had to be abandoned in place on 22 February

I am now joined by pro-bono paralegal help and forensic accounting volunteers who have pledged to work over the weekend and into this week to complete this submission. All of this new help is slowing thing down, but improving our submission substantially.

Further, I have created a conflict with the Probation department , who expects me to report today as well in Central Islip. This is entirely bad planning on my part. I must apologize to the Court.

I am seeking trial transcript for pre-trial conferences with Rubinstein, which I do not have funds to pay for. I have asked the Prosecution if they can supply a copy. Is there a mechanism for a IFP pro se petitioner to obtain transcripts from the court ?

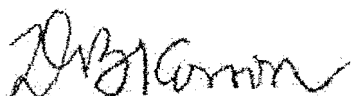

I humbly request a second extension to submit our 2255 Memorandum of Fact and Law, along with additional declarant submissions will resubmit it on along with the full documents MONDAY, May 11, 2011.

The deadline for the governments' response should similarly be set back to give them sufficient time to respond.

I thank the court for its patience in its dealing with me, and I apologize for my lack of sophistication in the ways of the court.

Sincerely,

D. B. Karron
